I like the way the prof asked for comments and suggestions.
it is the best way to assist student's learning.

The prof. is available everyday. I think that this is the first time I've ever felt welcome in seeking help.
He made each class interesting. I'd wake up very early to see this class.

The only problem is that the class is time constraint.
I wish I could have more.

I think professor was great about all his students doing well and understanding the material. The fact that he loves what he teaches makes us more interested in the subject. He is definitely a good role model for other professors in the science department to learn from. He doesn't try to trick students on exams, is very straight forward on wanting students to understand concepts & theories. He is an awesome teacher and definitely made me intrigued about physics.

Prof Nassar is an awesome teacher. He puts his heart and soul into teaching physics and that is apparent on a daily basis. He is so earnestly concerned about student doing well and understanding that you feel obligated to do well (a good thing). I would love to take all of my physics classes with a person half as passionate than prof Nassar. (Better yet I would love to take it w/ him)

Thanks
